

First Dog on the Moon Saves Christmas!!

Hey Christmas fans, did you know there are some people in the world who don't even have Christmas Decorations?! Terrible but true. Due to poverty, laziness, or simply that they have no love in their hearts there are some MONSTROUS FIENDS who don't even decorate for the baby Jesus. Shame!

But wait! Problem solved! Now anyone with a printer can have an awesome set of First Dog on the Moon Christmas Decorations AND ALSO A BONUS CHRISTMAS MOOD WALLABY OH MY GOD I THINK I AM HAVING A HEART ATTACK!

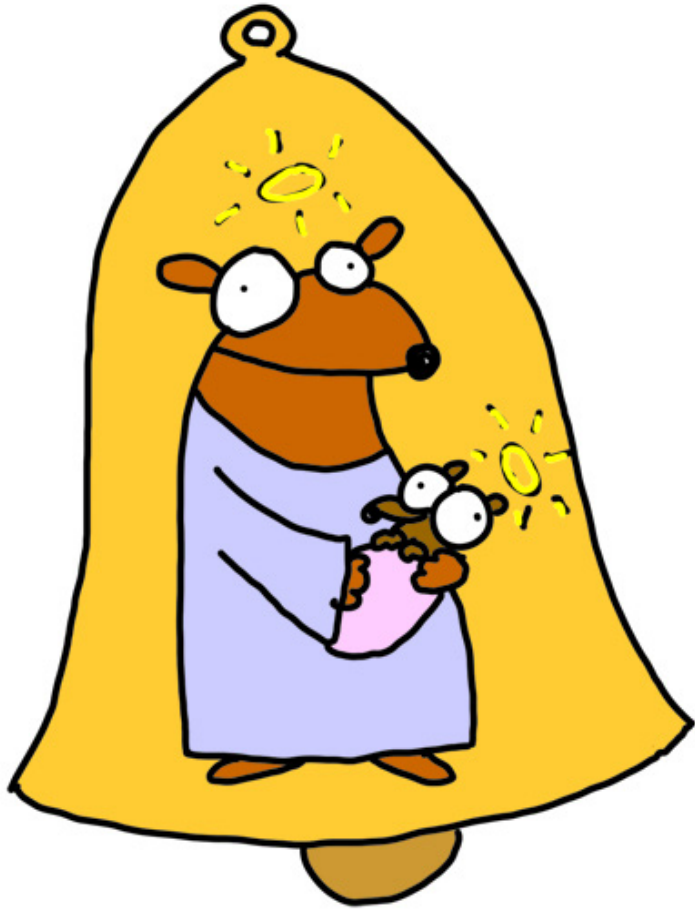

You will need -

Firm sensible cardboard - a pair of scissors - a glue stick - a colour printer - string or something to tie your decorations to whatever you are decorating (Tree, mantelpiece, comatose drunken grandma) - Glitter IS OPTIONAL

Please note it is best to do this on the colour printer at work if you have a job - why waste your own ink when you can celebrate Santa's Birthday AND stick to the man at the same time. DO IT!!

It's so easy to do it makes me want to weep with joy. Glue the paper to the cardboard, cut them out after they have dried - add OPTIONAL glitter - tie them to a thing! REJOICE!

So download the pdf below and hop to it you irrepresible yuletide pixie you!
